

WILSON DECIDES FOR FREE WOOL

TIME IS NEAR FOR THE PRESIDENT TO TAKE DEFINITIVE STAND.

SINGLE BILL GAINS FAVOR

Income Tax, Sugar and Wool Schedules Are Important Matters for Extra Session.

Washington, April 2.—Removal of all tariff from raw wool has been agreed upon between President Wilson and members of the house committee on ways and means as the result of conferences that ended today. The present plan, which will have the endorsement of the Democratic members of the committee, provides that wool shall be placed on the free list, an end for which the free wool Democrats of the house have fought for two years.

President Wilson was tonight face to face with the most serious phases of tariff revision.

With the work on the house ways and means committee before him and the extra session of congress only a few days off, the president had proceeded deep enough in his study of the tariff bill to realize that before the Democratic caucus met there were many points upon which he himself must take a definite stand. It was admitted at the white house that he would do so "in a day or two."

It was declared also that the president had not finally made up his mind as to whether the tariff should be revised by schedule or in a single bill, whether sugar should be put on the free list or given a reasonable amount of protection, and whether the income tax should be by flat rate or graduated.

These and kindred questions, the president has not yet decided about definitely, but from what he told his cabinet today, there was a well defined impression of his inclinations.

The president leans towards revision by a single bill. He thinks the income tax question can only be decided after an agreement has been reached upon tariff rates. He believes that sugar should go on the free list but is open to conviction on that point. The president has been hearing arguments that people in Louisiana could readily readjust their business to the new condition imposed by the removal of the tariff on sugar.

Hear From Louisiana.

But Cal Robert Ewing, national committeeman from Louisiana, has been presenting the other side of the question and when he left the white house yesterday he had laid the case in full before Mr. Wilson. Following upon his conference last night with Mr. Underwood, the first thing the president did today was to send for Colonel Ewing. He canvassed the possibility of getting a common agreement on the sugar question. The Louisiana national committeeman told the president that the business of the sugar growers of his state, with millions of dollars invested, would be destroyed if sugar entered free, but that they were willing to stand a 25 per cent cut. Mr. Wilson agreed to study the question further.

Tonight the president over the tariff situation with Senator Wm. Hughes of New Jersey, a member of the new finance committee. Senator Simmons, chairman of the committee, sought an appointment with the president and tomorrow will bring with him Senator Stone of Illinois and Hike Smith, also of the finance committee, for a discussion of the tariff bill.

Discusses Wool Schedule.

The president devoted most of the day to talking tariff. He discussed the woolen schedule with Representative Rainey of Illinois. The latter is an advocate of free wool and on coming away from the white house, said he was perfectly well satisfied with the president's attitude. It is well known that the president believes in a big reduction on wool, but whether it is a removal of all the duty, has not yet been definitely disclosed.

Members of the ways and means committee, after an all day session, today spent in perfection of tariff bill details. Declared there was no substantial difference of opinion between the committee and the president over the duty to be imposed on farm products.

The committee has put the agricultural duties over 10 per cent in the new bill. While President Wilson is understood to favor a further cut in some of them, members of the committee declared tonight that a complete agreement would be reached with the president without difficulty.

THREE ARE BURNED TO DEATH

Family Overtaken By Prairie Fire While Driving to Home of Relatives in Oklahoma.

Golden, Okla., April 2.—While fleeing before a prairie fire Tuesday, Grant Leslie, wife and baby boy were overtaken by the flames near here and their bodies burned to a crisp.

The charred bodies, the remains of Leslie's team were found by the roadside Wednesday where they had fallen. Leslie and his family had started to visit relatives near Granton when they were overtaken.

King George and Queen Mary Accept London, April 2.—King George and Queen Mary of England have accepted the invitation of the German emperor to attend the marriage of Princess Victoria Louise and Prince Ernest August of Cumberland at Berlin May 24.

U. S. INDUSTRY IS AWAKENING SAYS REDFIELD

New York, April 2.—American industry has long been a sleeping giant and is but now awakening, the country is just reaching out to take her place in the commercial arena of the world, in the opinion of William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, who addressed the graduating class of the New York trade school tonight.

"The great corporations that carry on 'big business' are adjusting themselves to meet the will of the people," Secretary Redfield said. "They begin to realize that their security lies in service and in that alone. The men within the mill are admitted on every hand to be of far greater value than the mill itself and profits are deemed wrong that spring from repression of the workers. The industries of America are shaking off the shackles and face serenely the prospects of competition, before which many of them have cowered in the past."

"The products of our steel mills go abroad at the rate of a million dollars daily. We are exporting the output of our factories to the extent of almost $1,500,000,000 a year. "Great as this total is, it is of greater import when we compare it with the past; the rate of increase in our foreign trade in manufactures of all kinds during the present fiscal year is thus far at the rate of about $500,000 a day. In manufactures ready for consumption, our foreign trade has increased in the eight months ending with February by $8,000,000. We are more than holding our own in the foreign field."

LEVEE WORKERS CONTINUE FIGHT ON MISSISSIPPI

Memphis, Tenn., April 2.—After a busy day, levee workers along the Mississippi river from New Madrid, Mo., as far south as the mouth of the White river in Arkansas, reported conditions satisfactory tonight. No decidedly weak spots have developed in any of the more important levees, and those directing the fight are hopeful they can successfully cope with the water, even should the maximum stage predicted for Memphis, 46 feet, be reached.

At Memphis the river rose nine-tenths of a foot today to a stage of 38.7 at 7 o'clock tonight, 3.7 above flood.

While several of the railroads passing through Memphis found it necessary to detour trains from this city to avoid washouts near Cairo, traffic through this city has not been interrupted on any of the roads.

Restaurant Men of Great White Way to Fight Gaynor's Rule

New York, April 2.—Disgruntled restaurant proprietors of the Great White Way flocked to District Attorney Whitman's office today to protest against Mayor Gaynor's 1 o'clock closing order and to pour into Mr. Whitman's ears tales of money paid for all night licenses and police protection. Mr. Whitman is investigating the charges.

According to some of the proprietors, from $500 to $5000, has been paid to collectors for their "services" in securing all night licenses. One man complained that his license was revoked twice in one year and that he had to pay a collector each time he had it renewed.

MONTENEGRINS CAPTURE KEY TO SCUTARI BY THE SACRIFICE OF 200 BOMB THROWERS; POWERS ACTING

Mrs. Wilson Is Much Interested in Girls Doing Duty for U. S.

Washington, April 2.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's interest in the welfare of the employees in the governmental departments and especially the girl workers, was evidenced today when she visited the bureau of engraving and printing, which employs a large number of young women.

Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, president of the Woman's Welfare department, National Civic Federation, inspected all the various departments of the bureau and was much interested in the making of paper money and postage stamps.

Election at Gatesville. Gatesville, Tex., April 2.—Very little interest was manifested in the city election yesterday, there being only 85 votes polled.

John T. Post was elected alderman in ward No. 1 (re-elected); W. M. Murray in Ward No. 2; Mrs. Pearl White, secretary (re-elected); A. R. Williams, treasurer.

Chaplain at Training School. Gatesville, Tex., April 2.—Rev. J. A. Safford of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, has been appointed chaplain at the school for training juveniles and assumed his duties yesterday.

Well, April Showers Bring May Flowers, So Keep on Smiling

Thunder, lightning and showers, the latter part of the proverbial April variety, are scheduled for Waco and vicinity today, according to the prediction of Dr. I. Block, voluntary weather observer.

Local Temperatures. Daily temperatures, furnished by Dr. I. Block, voluntary weather observer, for twenty-four hours ending Wednesday at 7 p. m.: Minimum 66, maximum 84. Barometer reading 29.8. Humidity 70.

Government Forecast. Washington, April 2.—Louisiana—Local thunder storms Thursday and probably Friday; cooler Friday; moderate south winds. Waco and vicinity—Thunder storms Thursday; Friday fair and cooler; cooler; brisk south to west winds. West Texas—Cloudy and cooler for Thursday; Friday fair.

Cettinje, April 2.—(4:20 p. m.)—Great Tarabosch fort, which, for months, has held the allies off Scutari, is now practically in the hands of the Montenegrins, thanks to the sacrifice of 200 bomb throwers, every one of whom lost his life in a last desperate effort to clear the way to the town, for the possession of which Montenegrins are ready to give up everything.

These bomb throwers were all picked men, chosen from several battalions. Clambering up the mountain side under a murderous fire from the Turkish guns, they cut the wire entanglements and getting in close quarters, threw bombs among the Turks, thus opening the way for the storming party.

Not one of the bomb throwers returned, but they had accomplished their object and the Montenegrin infantry, following close upon them, charged the trenches.

The Turks covered their ground and a desperate, bloody hand to hand fight ensued, lasting an hour and ending in victory for the Montenegrins, who lost 500 men killed and wounded.

Powers Invade Territory. London, April 2.—Just as Montenegro has scored her first real success by getting a foothold at Tarabosch, the key to Scutari, the warships of the powers are gathering along the coast to compel her to give up the most precious fruits of five months' fighting.

Elsewhere matters are moving smoothly. An agreement has practically been reached with regard to the boundary between Turkey and Bulgaria, although Bulgaria is guarding against any slip in the peace negotiations and is moving virtually the whole of her Adrianople army to Tchatalja. The captured town will be left in possession of gendarmes. A partial agreement also is reported as having been arranged between Bulgaria and Roumania, the latter getting Salastria.

U. S. TO GRANT CHINESE TITLE OF REPUBLIC

Washington, April 2.—This afternoon at the request of the secretary of state, members of most of the foreign embassies and legations in Washington appeared at the state department and were received individually by Mr. Bryan. Among them were representatives of Brazil, Japan, Great Britain, Russia, Portugal, France, Germany, Netherlands, Belgium, Sweden, Peru, Denmark, Mexico, Austria-Hungary and Spain. He calls lasted but a few minutes in each case and both Secretary Bryan and the visitors by agreement declined to make any statement as to the object of the visits.

A noticeable fact, however, was the absence of the Chinese minister, and it was concluded in order to prevent a repetition of the previous day's foreign capitals occasioned by the recent Chinese loan statement, the state department in this instance has given due notice of its intentions regarding China to all interested powers before publication thereof.

It was admitted at the department that a formal statement of the attitude of the administration towards the new Chinese government would be given to the press in the course of a few days and there is ground for the belief that without immediately recognizing China, assistance has been conveyed to Yuan Shi Kai's government and the world powers have been notified that such recognition will be extended before the first Chinese congress has assembled and organized next Monday.

MORGAN'S BODY ON WAY TO U. S.

ETERNAL CITY PAYS RESPECTS AS THE CORTEGE PASSES THROUGH STREETS.

SIMPLICITY IS IMPRESSING

Corpses Will Be Placed on Steamer for New York Saturday—Arrangements Made Here.

Rome, April 2.—The Eternal City gave its last farewell to J. Pierpont Morgan, whose body was conveyed this evening from the Grand hotel to the railway station and there placed aboard a train for Havre. It will be transported to the United States by a steamer, probably the France, sailing for New York on Saturday.

The German emperor sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Morgan, as follows:

"Accept the expression of my sincerest sympathy in your great bereavement. Your husband's death is a loss, not only for you, your family and your country, but his many friends in all parts of the world shall never forget him."

The funeral procession to the depot was impressive in its simplicity. The hearse was followed by carriages in which rode Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, the American ambassador, Thomas J. O'Brien, the staff of the embassy, the attending physicians, Dr. Nelson of the American church, and a few friends. Platoons of municipal guards acted as an escort. The people in the streets raised their hats as the cortege passed.

The coffin was placed on a special car, covered with black velvet drapery with silver fringe. The floral tributes from members of the family, the German emperor, the municipality of Rome and the American ambassador were placed around the coffin. Shortly before the departure the train the French consul arrived, bringing a beautiful silver wreath from the city of Aix les Bains. It bore the French tri-color and an appropriate inscription. George Post Wheeler, secretary of the American embassy, was the only member of the party to remain until the train drew out.

CHILD CALLED MORGAN "DADA"

Youngest Mourner is Five Years Old Now.

New York, April 2.—Among those who deeply mourn the death of J. Pierpont Morgan is one little girl who has seen the financier but once in her life. She is Miss Virginia Marie Burbridge, five years old, fellow of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Burbridge, Brooklyn.

It was in January, 1909, that little Virginia, then a baby in arms, was made a fellow by Mr. Morgan. Mr. Burbridge was temporarily an attendant at the museum at the time, and on the night that some important German paintings were first shown, his wife took Virginia and went up to see the pictures. Mr. Morgan and a party of other gentlemen were looking at the pictures critically. He happened to glance towards Mrs. Burbridge and the child saw Virginia holding up her arms to the pictures and crying. He went over and spoke to her. She looked up laughingly into his face and cried, "Da, da."

Mr. Morgan chuckled her under the chin, and laughed, and turned to another gentleman and said, "I am going to make her a fellow of the museum for life." And he did.

MORGAN'S DOG SHOWS GRIEF

Animal Remains in Kennel, Refusing Food.

Rome, April 2.—Among the almost innumerable messages of condolence received by Herbert L. Satterlee, son-in-law of the late J. P. Morgan, one of the most touching was that of the German emperor, the text of which has been cabled to the son of the dead financier.

Mr. Morgan's pet dog, of the Imperial Chinese breed, without which he never traveled and which he kept as his constant companion in his apartments, has remained in its kennel since his death, refusing to eat, and displaying evident signs of distress.

Flirting is Enemy of Suffrage Cause, Is Woman's Claim

St. Louis, April 2.—Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, Ill., today told the Mississippi Valley Suffrage conference that women who drench in suffrage parades should not trust too implicitly in the chivalry of American men. It was well, she said, for girl marchers to have a chap-erone.

Mrs. McCulloch told of a girl who went to Springfield to lobby "for the cause." She sat on the sofa with a member of the legislature and other members of the house observed that she flirted with her. That injured the "cause," said Mrs. McCulloch, and it was necessary to caution the young lobbyist against sitting on a sofa with legislators.

Miss Mary McEnery of Chicago, a representative of the women's trade union, advised that suffragists were through existing organizations of school teachers. Nearly all teachers were suffragists, she said. "Most working girls," she said, "do not care for the ballot because they had no time to think about it."

SPEAKER TERRELL'S BREAK WITH THE GOVERNOR WILL FORCE NEW ORGANIZATION OF THE HOUSE

METROPOLE HOTEL HAS BEEN SOLD TO THE BREUSTEDTS

The Metropole hotel property was sold yesterday by the Citizens National bank to Mrs. William Breustedt, Miss Pauline Breustedt and James Riley, the price being paid $125,000.

This is about the biggest money deal that has been pulled off recently in Waco real estate. The only gross amount of money that has exceeded it was the lease purchase of the Barker property at the corner of Fifth and Franklin streets, for $135,000, out that involved more frontage than the Metropole deal, so that in reality the Metropole deal is greater than all the others that have been pulled off here. The negotiations were conducted through the agency of Marshall, Nebbett & Zizina, and while they have been progressing for several days, the decision to make the purchase was reached Tuesday afternoon and yesterday morning the final agreement was made.

The Metropole hotel is 100 feet front on South Fourth street and 100 feet front on Franklin. It is a well located piece of property, being directly across the street from the post-office, and in the most active section of Waco. Every bit of floor space in the big hotel building, ground floor to top, is bringing in a good revenue.

The Metropole corner is considered one of the most valuable in Waco. There has never been a time since it was built and since the post office was located opposite that this section of town has failed to be active business property. The substantial interests which are located there are so permanent that the growth of the town in any direction will in no way interfere with the business there, and South Fourth street will continue to be one of the principal streets of the city.

The purchase of the Metropole is not a speculative one. James Riley will have the management of the property and since he has a personal investment. There are to be improvements made in the property, and it will be made attractive.

The Metropole is one of the best known hotels in the state.

SULZER DEFENDS HIMSELF AGAINST ALLEGED "BOSS"

Albany, N. Y., April 2.—Governor Sulzer tonight accused William Barnes Jr., chairman of the republican state committee, of having instigated the resolution offered yesterday by Senator Brown, requesting the state legislature to determine what, if any action, should be taken by the senate or the legislature in relation to a published letter in which the governor was quoted as having made a pre-election promise to sign the full crew bill.

"It was Barnes who does not keep out of the senate and keep his hands off the legislature, I will get after Mr. Barnes," declared the governor. "Barnes is the man who instigated that resolution. He is part of the investigation committee. He has no business meddling with the legislature. There would be a howl if Mr. Murphy came here and went into Senator Wagner's room and drew resolutions against the governor. I want Mr. Barnes to keep away from the capitol. He is the republican boss. The people do not want bosses up here. The people are the bosses now."

"Even if I had promised I would sign the full crew bill it would be all right. Governor Hughes and others promised they would sign certain bills if they could get them passed. There is nothing wrong in that. I noticed Governor Elder signed a full crew bill yesterday over in New Jersey. Between the railroads and the people I am with the people. Every human life is worth more than a train of freight cars."

Senator Brown denied that Mr. Barnes had any part in drafting his resolution. Governor Sulzer said last night that John Fitzgibbons of Oswego, a legislative representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, had denied the authorship of the letter accredited to him, in which the statement was made that the governor had promised to sign the full crew bill if elected.

Two of Crew Killed.

Victoria, B. C., April 2.—The British freighter Statesman arrived here today from a trip around the horn, with word that on the night of March 23 she was in collision off Point Reyes Cal., with the three-masted schooner fishing schooner John D. Spreckels. Captain Prellberg and six of the crew were saved, but two of the crew were killed in the collision.

Osborne May Assist Bryan.

Washington, April 2.—Former Governor Osborne of Wyoming, it was stated at the white house today, was most likely to be selected as first assistant secretary of state. He has been under consideration for some time.

PROS WILL ALIGN WITH THE EXECUTIVE TO DEPOSE PRESIDING OFFICER.

LEWELLING IS BUSY

CALLS ON COLQUITT FOR A CONFERENCE.

TERRELL DENIES HE IS TRAITOR

But Says Governor Shall Not Dictate His Vote—Issue Is Joined and Fight Is On.

Austin, April 2.—"If being a traitor to the administration means that I do not propose to be dictated to by him (the governor) or have him tell me how to vote, then I plead guilty, but in the ordinary meaning of the term his statement does not bear the semblance of truth."

This was the statement of Chester Terrell, speaker of the house, in relation to the governor's statement that he "had known Terrell was a traitor to the administration."

Speaker Terrell gave out an extensive list of bills which the governor had requested him to give preference to in the consideration of the house. These were the recognition of bonds for the university and the penitentiary system and allowing the creation of districts; the intermediate sentence bill; the nine jury bill; the bill raising the scholastic age, which were passed by the house.

The general penitentiary bill, the "blue sky" law bill, the stock and bond law requesting a repeal of the fire rating board, the highway commission bill, regulating the jurisdiction of the supreme court, and others all resolved recognition by the speaker and the men urging them on the floor were recognized. The bill regulating the jurisdiction of the supreme court passed.

"I took the floor and spoke in behalf of the providing for the system of bonds by the penitentiary system. I did not agree with the governor on striking out of the house joint resolution the section which would not have submitted to the people a separation of the A. and M. college and the university, as demanded by the Democratic platform of 1912, which platform demanded a complete divorce of the two colleges. We passed the resolution through the house by almost a unanimous vote as demanded by the Democratic party and not as requested by the governor."

These were some of the statements advanced today by Speaker Terrell in defense of his position.

Speaker Terrell's parting rebuke to the governor and subsequent developments are creating more than a tingling interest today. There is no doubt now that Chester Terrell is firing his opening gun in the race for governor at the next election. He practically asserted this today when the question was put to him.

The speaker's words and the governor will have more and greater results than anticipated. Terrell was elected by pro votes with the support of the administration. Now reorganization of the house seems a necessity for friends of the speaker are noting the fact that administration legislation will be practically impossible with an opponent in the chair.

Supporters of McKamy for speaker, prominent among whom are Lewelling and Allison, remained in the capitol today and Lewelling was elected speaker of the house for the afternoon. He openly favors house reorganization in July. Should friends of the governor unite with the forces led by Allison and Lewelling, the present speaker will have a hard time in retaining his seat.

The governor announced that he was not organizing opposition to Terrell.

Statement by Lewelling.

After a conference with the governor this afternoon Representative Lewelling gave out the following: "The situation of the speaker and interest to the prohibitionists. I have long contended that an anti-prohibitionist should not have been selected by a prohibition house and did all I could to prevent it. I succeeded in getting the majority of the speaker at the beginning of the session to unite against the election of Mr. Terrell, but nevertheless, enough prohibitionists deserted our ranks to give victory to the anti in a prohibition house. Any quarrel between the prohibitionists and the speaker does not interest me, except as it may be used to work out good for the cause of the people of the entire state. By no means do I endorse many things the governor has heretofore stood for. Neither do I by any means endorse the entire administration of Speaker Terrell. If the governor has a program to submit to the special session which meets with the approval of the prohibitionists on matters of general legislation including a further reduction of the liquor traffic, reform in our criminal and civil code, freed penitentiary legislation, blue sky law and public utility regulation, as well as a thorough revision of our election laws, in the interest of the entire people, I think the prohibitionists would be glad to join hands with Governor Colquitt in these and all matters of general moment in rendering him such assistance as they could and I take it that they would not be adverse to the assistance of the governor in his efforts to carry out his program of just legislation even though it might necessitate a reorganization of the house to do so."

Governor Colquitt this afternoon signed the following bills: House bill 28, abolishing the consurage law in the state insurance board; house bill 608, providing that fire insurance companies shall not escape liabilities on technicalities; senate bill 387, abolishing the present state fire insurance board and providing in lieu thereof a state insurance commission, appropriating $100,000 for the work of the commission; senate 438, permitting fire insurance companies of Texas to insure autos; senate bill 230, fixing license fees for certain insurance concerns which are authorized to do business in Texas, and prescribing the kind of contracts they may write; senate bill 215, prescribing method of procuring charters for bank and trust companies; senate bill 474 authorizing Nueces county to build a causeway across Corpus Christi bay; house bill 387, making it penalty for owners of gas wells to allow same to go unguarded; house bill 93, making more efficient laws relating to delinquent children; senate bill relating to incorporation of banks and trust companies; senate bill 246, defining and regulating fraternal and beneficiary associations.

Veto Axe Falls.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—Governor Colquitt applied the veto axe to four measures this morning. These were senate bill 371, creating an agricultural experiment station near Lufkin in Angelina county; house bill 58, creating the Seventy-seventh judicial district of El Paso county; house bill 375, regarding the establishment of a state training school and home for the feeble minded, and house concurrent resolution 17, providing a commission for the inspection of the capitol.

In vetoing he followed his former policy with regard to additional agricultural experiment stations and judicial districts. In failing to affirm the home for the feeble minded he has already requested the legislature to call the bill back and change the home to be in conjunction with the epileptic colony and reduce appropriation from $50,000 to $25,000, which he refused to do. The veto on the commission for the sanitary inspection of the capitol conveyed the message that if the legislature would allow enough money for expenses it would not be necessary to appoint any such commission.

Suite for Penalties.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—The state of Texas through the attorney general's department has filed suits in the Fifty-third district court against the Timpon and Henderson and the Jefferson and Northwestern Railway company for penalties amounting to $529,000. The penalties are sought on alleged failure of the two companies to file monthly reports with the railroad commission. Suit against the Timpon and Henderson railroad was for $264,000, and against the Jefferson and Northwestern railroad company for $265,000.

School Fund Per Capita.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—F. M. Bralley, superintendent of instruction, today announced $1 per capita as the April apportionment of the school fund. This is the sixth apportionment and amounts to $1,017.33. The total apportionment per capita for the school fund is $6.85, of which amount $5.75 has already been apportioned or a total of $5,848,514.75.

Saloon Closing Bill Status.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—In considering the 9:30 closing bill, an odd status of affairs became apparent that may mean the death of the platform demand. The governor is undecided. The bill now before the governor fixing the opening and closing hours at 6 and 9:30 o'clock respectively, further provides that to secure a renewal of license an affidavit must be made that the saloon has not been kept open after 12 midnight and opening before 6 in the morning. A signature of the governor passing the bill would make it necessary for every present license holder to commit perjury or forfeit his license, as the present law allows opening at 5 a. m. Congressional redistricting is dead. It will not be submitted at an extra session. A veto will be given the Ussery bill making the carrying of a pistol a penitentiary offense.

Stokers Take Stand.

New York, April 2.—Mechanical stokers used on locomotives of some railroads were under the fire all day today of witnesses for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen in the arbitration proceedings between the firemen and fifty-four eastern railroads. Witness after witness testified the stokers lightened the work of the firemen not at all and in some cases increased it. These witnesses testified in rebuttal to evidence introduced previously by the railroads.

WICKERSHAM'S ACTS EVIDENCE

Albert C. Frost Defends Self By Telling of Conversation With Former Attorney General.

Chicago, April 2.—Assertions that former Attorney General Wickersham had in the fall of 1908, promised him fair play, were made today by Albert C. Frost, on trial with four others before Federal Judge Landis for alleged Alaskan land frauds. The testimony relative to Wickersham was introduced as a result of the reading of an opinion of the attorney general in an Oregon land case trial where subsequent developments, it was alleged, showed that government attorneys had persuaded witnesses to swear falsely in the interest of the prosecution.

"I was on my way to London," testified Frost, "when I heard that the government was questioning the coal claims in the Mantanuska valley. I stopped off at Washington and, through Senator Cullom, made arrangements to meet Mr. Wickersham. I told the attorney general fully and honestly the status of the coal claims. I assured him that all the claims were taken out for the use and benefit of the locators who took out the papers and for no one else. I told him action by the government against me would do me much injury and be unfair. I offered to interrupt my trip and testify before a grand jury.

"Mr. Wickersham said I should have no concern about the investigation and to continue my trip to London. He said he would write to Assistant Attorney General Townsend and direct him to stop the prosecution of the case against me if he, Townsend, found the facts to be as I had stated. He suggested I also write to Townsend, which I did, and have no doubt that Mr. Wickersham also wrote to him.

The answer of Townsend, who is conducting the prosecution of the case here, was that he had not found the facts as Frost had stated them to him and to the attorney general.

OROZCO, JR. NAMED GOVERNOR

Mexican Senate Makes Selection for Chihuahua at Suggestion of President Huerta.

Mexico City, April 2.—General Pascual Orozco Jr. has been named by the senate at the suggestion of President Huerta as governor of Chihuahua. General Orozco, however, has asked the president for permission to participate in the campaign against Emiliano Zapata and then go to Chihuahua and assume the governorship. President Huerta has not yet decided.

American Reported Killed.

Washington, April 2.—An investigation by the American embassy in Mexico City into the killing of Bert H. Lawrence, an American citizen, has developed the information that Lawrence was shot Monday night by one of his employees, Portico, in the state of Vera Cruz. The embassy has demanded that the Mexican government arrest and punish whoever is responsible for the murder.

FRIEDMANN CONSENTS

BERLIN PHYSICIAN WILL MAKE GOOD ON GOVERNMENT CLINIC.

Breaking of Apparatus Delays Work for the Present, but Not For Long.

New York, April 2.—Dr. Friedmann announced tonight that he would proceed with his promised government clinic at which he will treat 100 patients with his tuberculosis vaccine as soon as an incubator had been repaired.

This apparatus, which regulates the temperature of the culture, broke yesterday. It is because of this that the German specialist declared it necessary to defer the test requested by government physicians.

"When my incubator is repaired, I will be ready and I will stay here until I think my mission is finished," declared Dr. Friedmann.

NO LIQUOR IN DRY TOWNS

Elks Club Cannot Have Supply for Its Members Only, Is Ruling.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—The attorney general's department today ruled, in answer to several inquiries, that it would be a violation of the local option law to allow any other club to sell intoxicating liquor in prohibition territory, whether to members or not. It also held that members could not club together and order liquor through the steward, that this was clearly a violation of the local option law, and the offenders guilty of a felony.

"HUMANITY'S ADVANCE GUARD"

James Hazen Hyde Tells of Progress of Countries.

Paris, April 2.—James Hazen Hyde lectured before the French institute today on the role of France in the development of the United States. He said that Great Britain, France and the United States, the three great liberal nations, were the advance guard of humanity and that they were united in their efforts for the betterment of civilization.

The great discoveries which had revolutionized the modern world, steam, electricity and aviation, were largely due, the speaker said, to the collaboration of these three countries. Mr. Hyde also declared that America, using the English language, was the natural link between England and France.

ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION.

Rear Admiral Peary Would Lead His Assistance.

Rome, April 2.—Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary, speaking today before the international geographical congress, urged that three Antarctic expeditions be undertaken—one directly to the south pole, a second around the pole and a third to cross it. He hoped the United States would initiate these expeditions, or that some other country could do so, as the polar regions afforded room for the activities of all nations.

Admiral Peary said he would give his support and experience in the carrying out of such expeditions, but would not personally participate, as in his opinion they needed younger men.

FLAGLER RECOVERING.

Railroad Magnate's Condition Reported Improved.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 2.—A special to a local newspaper from West Palm Beach received at 4 o'clock tonight, contradicted other advice as to the condition of Henry M. Flagler, who is reported seriously ill.

"Henry M. Flagler's condition," says the special, "is considered much improved tonight and his physicians are now hopeful that he will recover."

Thief Uses Parcel Post.

Louisville, Ky., April 2.—The parcel post was used yesterday by a thief to send Chief of Detectives Carney a package containing a watch and fob and diamond cuff links, representing the unsold portion of loot which the thief took from J. L. Sohn, who was held up in this city more than a month ago. In a note accompanying the package and bearing the date line "No. where," the writer explained that the articles contained could not be disposed of without danger of detection, and hence were returned.

Educator Faces Charge.

Pittsburg, April 2.—L. H. Hester, superintendent of the public schools of Pittsburg, indicted yesterday by the grand jury on two serious charges. He was charged with having been employed in the Hester household, late today asked for and was granted a leave of absence by the board of public education "until my innocence is established in the indictments now found against me."

Rangers Fired Upon.

Valentine, Tex., April 2.—Leaving Presidio yesterday with a Mexican prisoner en route to Marfa, Texas, Rangers J. Vaughn and Buck Pott were fired upon by Mexicans attempting to rescue the prisoner. The prisoner made a dash for liberty during the firing and was killed by Ranger Vaughn. The rangers then fired at the Mexican mob, which dispersed.

Olympic Leaves England.

Southampton, Eng., April 2.—The steamship Olympic sailed from here today on her first trans-Atlantic trip for six months, during which she has been reconstructed and provided with a new inner skin and additional bulk heads.

MIMIC WARFARE SHOWS POWER

TARGET MORE THAN FOUR MILES AWAY IS DESTROYED IN PRACTICE.

CABINET MEN VIEW SCENE

Practice Is Commended and Officers Receive Congratulations on Ability and Deportment.

Old Point, Va., April 2.—Secretary Daniels, of the navy department and four other members of President Wilson's cabinet, stood on the bridge of the dreadnought Wyoming today while her battery of twelve twelve-inch guns roared for the first time at battle practice in salvo. At the first salvo the target, more than four miles away, was torn to bits and before there was a dozen holes in the portion left standing.

Conditions for target practice were almost ideal.

On the southern drill grounds the sea was smooth, the skies were clear and there was just enough breeze to clear away the smoke from the guns in quick time.

Secretaries Daniels, McAdoo, Lane and Houston and postmaster General Burleson, equipped with powerful glasses, watched the shots eagerly. Miss Eleanor Wilson, the president's daughter, and the wives of several members of the cabinet, were on the battleship Idaho.

Tonight Secretary Daniels returned to the grounds on the Wyoming to witness firing from the four 12-inch guns of the Minnesota, at a towed target, never before tried in the American navy. The rest of the party left on the Mayflower for Washington late today.

Mr. Daniels said of the practice: "The principal things that impressed me were the appearance of the ships, officers and men, the interest they displayed in the battle practice, and the close community of interest between officers and men, a relationship which should this country unfortunately ever be engaged in war, will be the deciding factors in bringing success to the American forces. The whole operation showed to me a very high state of efficiency and I attribute this to the team work that prevails, from the admiral to the newest recruit."

Body Identified.

Waxahatchie, Texas, April 2.—The man killed by a train near Red Oak Sunday morning was positively identified as John W. Patrick by his brother, who came to Red Oak yesterday. The body was taken up and reburied in the Baptist cemetery. A woman with whom Patrick boarded a few days in Dallas also aided in the identification.

Fifteen Years for Arson.

New York, April 2.—Max Kleinberg was sentenced to Sing Sing for a maximum term of fifteen years today for arson. Kleinberg pleaded guilty to an indictment found against him on the testimony of "Izzy the Painter," self-confessed firebug who said Kleinberg employed him to set fire to his tailor shop.

Carpenters Strike at El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., April 2.—Ninety per cent of the carpenters in El Paso struck today for higher wages. They are now receiving 55 cents an hour and are striking for 66 2/3 cents an hour. Work was stopped on several hundred houses as a result of the strike.

80 Dead in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—Slowly crawling toward the century mark, the total number of bodies recovered in the west side debris left by the receding floods in the Scioto river and dumped tonight to eighty, according to official morgue records.

Three Persons Drowned.

Caruthersville, Mo., April 2.—Two men and a woman, refugees from the flooded lowlands, were drowned tonight while working their way across the river to Caruthersville in a small boat, which was swamped. Their identity is not known.

Cotton Mill Owner Named.

Washington, April 2.—While Fuller E. Callaway, a cotton mill owner and business man of La Grange, Ga., has been selected for commissioner of Indian Affairs, no official announcement is expected for several days.

THE SOCIETY CALENDAR FOR THIS THURSDAY

The Progressive Bridge plays with Miss Cecile Strauss on North Twelfth. The Literary club meets with Mrs. William Sleeper, Twelfth and Morrow.

Mrs. Jean Sherwood gives art stereoscopic talks at the library both afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Bart Moore opens her series of three lectures.

The Maids and Matrons with Mrs. Ed Laughlin, Thirteenth and Clay.

The Bachelor Maids play with Miss Lydia Clinton on Columbus street.

The C. W. B. M. meets at Central Christian church at 3.30.

Miss Ella Flowerlynn entertains the Beau Nots and her bridge club at the Country club.

There is to be an informal Turkey Trot at the Country club.

Supper at the Central Christian church.

DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB TO TAKE PLACE TONIGHT

Promoted by Langdon Luedde and W. D. Lacy, Jr., a number of the society set will go out to the Country club tonight for an informal early season dance.

MONTHLY MEETING NOTICE FOR THE C. W. B. M.

It is reminded that the monthly meeting of the Christian Women's Board of Missions is called for the Central Christian church this afternoon at half after three o'clock, and that a full attendance is urged.

THE BEAU NOTS ELECT

At their last session the Beau Nots elected new officers. Miss Katherine Lattimore was made president. Miss Alta Harrison vice president, and Miss Fay Clinton treasurer and secretary. It is nearing time for the Beau Nots to make ready for their summer dance.

THE COLONIAL BRIDGE WITH MRS. FRANK SIMMS

Nothing out of the accustomed afternoon at the bridge table characterized the last game of the Colonial bridge. Mrs. Frank Simms was the hostess.

Two invited guests joined the game. The Mesdames Lon Sparks and J. J. Powers had the coincidence of making the same score, which gave the accustomed awards to these two. The next hostess is Mrs. Lon Sparks.

THE HOME ASSOCIATION HAS MONTHLY MEETING

The final returns from the Easter tea at the Home as reported during the monthly meeting on Tuesday was a trifle more than seventy-five dollars. The women consider this quite gratifying. This sum has already defrayed the expense of some fresh furniture for the Home. No dollar goes amiss. Other than this, the meeting was purely routine in its nature.

THE LILY AUCTION BRIDGE IS NOW RESUMED

After a prolonged adjournment the Lily Auction came together under very agreeable conditions on Tuesday. The games will continue unbroken until warm weather forces discontinuance.

The hostess was Mrs. Charles Hamilton, who had invited the Mesdames Walter Lacy, W. W. Seley, W. W. Pryor and John Cooper to take the hands of absent members. The high score was made by Mrs. Seley and the high consolation cut by Mrs. Clinton Padgett. The next game will be with Mrs. Joel Westbrook.

MRS. W. S. WITTE HOSTESS TO HER BRIDGE CLUB

The first of the auction games for the Young Married Ladies' Card club found Mrs. W. S. Witte hostess in the home of her mother, Mrs. Ramsey Cox. No additions were made for this game except the few substitutes to take hands for the members unavoidably detained at home. Both the prizes were pieces of fancy work. They were won by Mrs. Charles Moore and Mrs. Lewis Early. The next game will be played out at the Huaco club with Mrs. A. R. Wilson the hostess.

THE PRESS CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. J. B. LOGAN

Quite a large attendance marked the last session of the Press club. Mrs. J. B. Logan was the hostess. The annual election of officers took place for the next year. Mrs. Fred Robinson will be president, the vice presidents are Miss Decca Lamar West and Mrs. Edith Leasing. The treasurer is Mrs. Smartt, and the secretary Mrs. Isaac Mayfield. The study was discussed and it was decided to add some topic of political science to the previously adopted study of the Bible.

The interesting features was the presence of Mrs. Smartt of Manor, who gave a report of wonderful club work being done in her town. The contributors to the program were the Mesdames Susan Thornton Price and E. W. Saunders. Mrs. Logan brought the afternoon to a social close. Mrs. Isadore Block, after an extended absence, was welcomed back to her old place.

SACRED HEART ALUMNAE HAS IMPORTANT MEETING

Following the call of Mrs. W. O. Wilkes for the session of the Sacred Heart Alumnae, a significant enterprise was launched. It had been previously announced that a state organization of the alumnae was organized in Fort Worth. This is upon the eve of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary or jubilee of the founding of this order in America. The original home is Lockport, New York, and it is here that the jubilee will be celebrated. The Texas alumnae proposes to recognize this half hundred years of good work by presenting to the convent at Lockport a perpetual scholarship for some poor but ambitious girl. The interest will sustain this student and not encroach upon the principle. The members present at once undertook to raise the thousand dollars necessary for Waco. Several made generous personal donations. It is measurably assured that the entire alumnae will respond, and that Texas will add another star to her crown for educating worthy girls.

THE SEASON IS OPENED FOR THE HUACO CLUB

It had been announced that the membership of the Huaco club should be enlarged by fifty associate members for the opening of this summer season. More than the fifty names were handed in for invitation by the charter club, but the original limit was sustained. These fifty, with their lady friends, were thus greeted at the Huaco on Friday evening for the opening dinner dance of the club season. Alessandro was present with his orchestra. Several private dinner parties were within the large aggregation of club members. Also a number of strangers received introduction personally to the club life of this city.

Noticed especially among the guests was the party where Jerome Cartwright was host in honor of Miss Berta Mackey and her fiancé, L. A. Brooks, whose wedding date had been announced a few hours only. Other guests were Misses Eleanor Blair and McKenna of Fort Worth, with Gardner Gillespie. Also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baine had a half dozen guests, these being Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McAshan. At still another table were Nelson Smith, Franklin Lindsey and Mr. Bush, with Mrs. William Breustedt, the Misses Ida Orand and Pauline Foster.

The attendance was quite large both for the dinner and for the dance, which came later. Thus the Huaco club inaugurates its season for Waco society, really the most significant of social centers for the long summer months.

PRETTY BRIDGE LUNCHEON IS GIVEN MRS. McELROY

It needs but to be said that Mrs. H. K. Brewer is hostess to assure something beautifully conducted. This refers to the last of Mrs. Brewer's courtesies to her friends, a bridge luncheon with which she complimented her house guest, Mrs. J. P. McElroy, of Odessa. The fresh flowers are yet so young that they rivet our admiration. Mrs. Brewer used these to great advantage for her decorative feature, and, in addition, shared them with her guests. The general tone of pink prevailed. On the mantels and the larger tables these were stationery. But for the luncheon and bridge tables, the golden florist baskets, each with the natural pea and other blossoms, and bordered by the pink main ribbons, were cut by the guests at each table when the bridge feature began. In the meantime one table was dressed for a few guests who do not indulge bridge. After greeting to friends, Mrs. McElroy, who is returning to friends of several former visits, the eight courses were served, all as dainty as could be devised. In the cuts, the baskets fell to Miss Margaret Bush, the Mesdames Leslie Gardner, J. E. Alton, J. W. Bass, R. G. Patton. After the bridge tilt, the prize award gave for high score to Mrs. Pio Crespi, and a guest favor to Mrs. McElroy. Seven courses was the luncheon feature in this exceedingly pretty and enjoyable affair. Wild rose place cards bore the names, other than those who captured trophies, the Mesdames Bart Moore, W. O. Wilkes, C. E. Smith, William Breustedt, Norman Shumate, J. R. Millam, John Freeman, A. W. Koch, Frank Forman, J. W. Orand, Harry Raine, Layton Puckett, Ralph Turner, James Williamson, and Miss Sophie May Lambdin of Georgia.

THE CRANFORDS MEET WITH MRS. EUGENE EARLY

Another of the pleasant afternoons which is going to make Cranford history found Mrs. Eugene Early the hostess in her good old-fashioned way of making everybody feel welcome without the flurry of telling them so. Mrs. Early is one of the popular Cranfords, so it is always with pleasure that the club finds her hostess. This afternoon, one of the first warm days found the spacious rooms open to the breeze and the cooling cup among the refreshments. Only a guest or two was present, this being a Cranford sewing bee. As the women sat around all talking and enjoying, it was forcefully reminded of the original Cranfords whom Mrs. Gaskell depicts so entertainingly in her novel. These women were discussing suffrage, the sanitary conditions, the street paving squabble, and other up to the moment topics. The original Cranfords, you remember, were thrown into dreadful consternation because that horrible man, Charles Dickens, was writing a story called Pickwick Papers which more horrid men were actually reading, instead of trying to save their souls with Bunyon's Pilgrim's Progress and Fox's Book of Martyrs. Verily, the times do change. But it was a cultured circle, and withal a very agreeable one, which spent this hour with Mrs. Early. The most

MRS. OSCAR STRIBLING HONORS MISS MACKAY

Among all the social excitement of Tuesday none found deeper note than did the small luncheon party of Mrs. Oscar Stribling. Although small in number of guests, the occasion was momentous in that it told the date for the marriage of Miss Berta Mackey to L. A. Brooks. Society has been strongly suspicious, nay, to certainty, that this event was in the near future, but there had been the uncertainty of when. This Mrs. Stribling tribute to Miss Mackey. Only twelve covers were laid, these being for the hostess, Mrs. Mackey, Miss Eleanor Blair, with Mrs. Louise Madden Brown and the Misses Viola Barton, Rebecca Mackey, Fort Worth, Marguerite Blair, Lucile Bruton, Clara Prim, Roberta Early and Gertrude Bush. The roseate tone of pink and the rose in flower was the selection for a color tone to follow the courses and the table decorations. But the tiny rose set cake for the cream. Towards the close, Mrs. Stribling suggested that the envelopes be opened. And they were all curiosity to know when Miss Berta Mackey would be a bride. But Cupid played an April fool. Not a date was found, until Mrs. Mackey told the card reader, "L. A. Brooks and Miss Berta Mackey, April the 23rd." The agony of suspense was over, and it was all chatter as to what were the wedding plans. Thus Miss Berta Mackey confessed to the last of her love's secret. The groom appeared by proxy. He had recognized this courtesy to his fiancée by sending flowers and a note to the hostess, which was read with a tribute to him as groom. Miss Eleanor Blair paid a friendship tribute to Miss Mackey. So at last the Easter bride has declared herself and congratulations are being generously given to one of Waco's popular couples.

Society Personals.

After a month's visit to her girlhood home, Shreveport, Mrs. C. H. Brooks of North Twelfth, is returned.

Miss Rebecca McKenna of Fort Worth, is the guest of Miss Berta Mackey on North Twelfth.

WIDOWS, NOT SPINSTERS.

A correspondent of the London Mail points out that until the other day he had never seen or heard of a red-haired spinster, commenting on the fact that red hair of the Titian tint remains at least till middle age. "I know that red hair in girls and women is extremely rare nowadays, and anthropological experts say that the red-haired race is fast disappearing. A friend to whom I mentioned my one and only meeting with a red-haired spinster told me that he had always heard that there was not an old maid to be found whose head was crowned with the real red hair." A member of the Royal Anthropological Institute said: "I am inclined to think that few if any girls with Titian-tinted hair fail to get married. Men like them, and they are quickly married. Nowadays red hair is rare chiefly because only when both parents have red hair does the hair of the child take on the same color. And a man and woman with red hair rarely marry." The foregoing is clumsy, but convincing and unintentionally illuminating. Texas abounds in red-haired widows. The London scientist tells us that red-haired women are quickly married, and the proverbial consequence of marrying in haste at once flashed on us. But it is the woman who repents at leisure. The man has, if the widow be widow de facto, not de jure, passed to that realm where repentance is done to the quickstep at the end of a trident.

The chaplain of the Arizona senate, who recently prayed that "God chasten newspaper men who are stirring up strife between the two houses of the legislature," didn't care how much he ignored the counsel of a greater preacher than, probably, he ever heard: "One must search long and think hard before fastening the blame for wickedness within the halls of the State."

"Mrs. Jones of Chicago says give women convicts corsets to wear and they will re-form at once; or corset is the truth!" outrages the Buffalo News; and the Allentown Democrat indignantly denounces a fiend who springs a pun like that as deserving of being "laced." We would be the last to stay this punster's punishment.

Some one will spoil this by commenting on it:

Miss Winnie Titus gave an excellent musicale at her home last Saturday afternoon. The afternoon was gloomy. Yet there was a goodly number in attendance. The home was beautifully decorated, lighted and heated by the furnace—Sullivan (Ill.) Democrat.

We have something to be grateful for. They have replaced a tune only three years ancient with one only two years ancient, after four months of the former, in the piano of a local fire trap.

Our idea of nothing to worry about is the authorship of editorials appearing locally in behalf of the incumbents—pardon, incumbents—of the school board.

This is the third day of the long face in street, shop and office. Hobby has not yet become reconciled to the bills for Easter hats that arrived April 1 to make that day fools' day indeed.

The beloved brother, or some one for him, still thinks that amateurish sarcasm is the proper way to express his opposition to the Mothers' ticket.

Certainly the Mothers' ticket wants to get control of the school board. If there's one thing the school board needs, it's controlling.

A Chicago professor is advocating wife-beating. Probably any woman who would marry a man of his type deserves it.

MORGAN.

It is but indicative of the power and prominence of the name of Mr. J. P. Morgan among English-speaking peoples to say that the passing of the ruler of a world-power nation would create less stir and interest than did the death of this inexplicable, enigmatical American genius in Rome Monday. No man of the past decade, the world over, has been more talked of and less known personally by the people; it follows that no man has been the subject of more exaggeration, a deal of which was gross as popular comment on the work and way of living of a financier of many millions always is.

It were futile to attempt comparison of Morgan's achievements in the world of finance, of money manipulation, with the achievements of great financiers of this and other nations who are, or were, his contemporaries. There will be an element who will insist he was not as "great" as several of these perhaps, and certainly not their superior. One knows that Huntington and Harriman had, and Rockefeller and Frick and Coolidge and Ryan have, financial talent in abundance; that at least two of the Rothschilds occupied a place of greater public merit and were more concerned in the money matters of nations; that the Barings and the Browns rank well toward the top. Morgan's dealings with the government's treasury in the 1907 panic stand out, of course, for consideration of whatever public service may be claimed for his genius. These have been lauded time and again, and go toward establishing the claim that this nation produced a great financier the government could trust at a time when trust in the money power is none too common. Comparison, we think, neither can detract from nor add to the estimate of Morgan's ability and place the public will make and men of high standing in the nation's banking interests will make.

Morgan's very human side, his love of the beautiful in the arts, and his contributed collections in public museums, are really the only phases of his life with which the public was in the least acquainted. His recent appearance before the congress committee investigating the existence of a "money trust" added but little relative of the workings of his mind in the methods of high finance and nothing at all concerning his relation to the powers of American finance. So, perhaps, it is a happy circumstance that a man too often misclassified as a "buccaneer" because of his wealth, his position and his powerful control of well-known concerns should be remembered, insofar as his actual relation to his fellow men is concerned, only for that human side and for the pleasure it will give many generations of New York people in gallery and museum. Too much cannot be said in behalf of his splendid charities, much as his wealth would have rendered uncharitableness abhorrent. The knowledge that Morgan possessed fine sentiment in his giving should do much to earn an epitaph to his manhood, no less than to his mastery.

The Joplin Globe began it by emphasizing the courts' decision that stenographers are neither laborers nor artists. The News-Scholar murmurs that many stenographers in Memphis are peaches. The Muskogee Phoenix sniffs that it has known some who were lemons. "Sour grapes," jeers the Parsons (Kan.) Sun, stirring the basket of fruit metaphorically and rudely. We, ourselves, are content from personal knowledge to echo the court's estimate: some of the ladies toil not, neither are they artistic.

MISSOURI IS "SHOWN."

Missouri's detrimental experiences with promiscuous "enforcement" of the ouster against Standard Oil and other corporations to the extent that these may remain in the State under certain prescribed conditions, well may be studied in Texas—to the profit, the enlightenment and the possible disgruntling of the more intelligent among those who now throw up their hats and whoop whenever a valiant attorney general starts out from Austin on a "trust-busting" tilt.

In commendation of Missouri's delayed return to commonsense regulation of big business within her borders the Kansas City Star reminds us that the supreme court's order at the close of the prosecution of Standard Oil was made in conformity with the existing law. "As the courts say, their judgments are determined not by what they believe the law ought to be, but by what it is. There is consequently no conflict between the Missouri supreme court and the Missouri legislature, the latter of which has passed a bill to permit the Standard to continue in business under certain safeguards against restraint of trade. Learning from the court's order the drastic effect of the present anti-trust statutes, and believing that the people do not now wish such an effect, the legislature simply has proposed a modified statute.

It is not indulging in biased exaggeration to predict that it will be Texas's turn next to let a little sunshine in on its anti-trust statutes before the "enforcement" of these develops quite into anti-business buncombe and political preferment methods that will sweep aside in consideration of personal advancement all consideration for the State's place in the investment world.

If there is a sound of weeping in the State today for the mere fact of the breaking up at Austin, it is a low, low sound. But there is g-nashing of teeth over what might have been.

The Nebraska State Journal reports that one James Stark was "sentenced for life and fourteen years" for murderous assault. Evidently a preventive measure directed against the indeterminate use of the pardoning power. Fourteen years "kicks"!

The open season for political bosses comes a little earlier in Cincinnati this year.

Texas Viewpoints

Premature.

If anything further is needed to jar you loose from these old foggy ideas that 13 is an unlucky number, just remember that the first Democratic president we have had since Heck was a pup started his career in 1913. Also please sit up and take notice that while we have been suffering from drought for years in Snyder and vicinity, the year 1913 has opened with more rain from the cornucopia of good fortune than we have been blessed with at this time of year for a long time previous.—Snyder Free Press.

"Some must watch while others weep. So runs the world 'way." Immediately on the heels of this premature cockadoodle, and many like it in celebration of the kindness of March weather, came the terrible inundations in Indiana and Ohio, a railroad wreck or two, the death of Mr. Morgan and lesser losses, none of which might be compared with the floods, but none of which, surely, was bestowed on the perilous world by Dame Fortune. So we are reminded that safely to pass the first quarter of the year means very little; this quarter has been far from a safe passage, and "13" will continue to plague even the broadest optimist if he have the least touch of superstition.

The Old Story.

We learn that the circulation of the new nickel is being restricted. This is not a matter of surprise to us, as it appears to the average man that the circulation of all preceding issues have come under the same obnoxious restriction.—North Fort Worth News.

Not quite the same. The new nickel appeared contemporaneously with the advent of the book season, which, as the average user of the nickel for the usual nickel purchase knows to his sorrow, is a too-brief season. The brevity of the season may account in some degree for the restricted circulation (at present) of the new nickel. Other reasons why the circulation of the ugly coin is being restricted are reasons for private circulation solely.

In Mem.

Governor Colquitt Monday received copies of documents in the archives of Mexico relating to the Alamo mission at San Antonio. The order to have these copies made and sent to the governor of Texas was one of the last acts of the official career and life of Francisco I. Madero, late president of Mexico. Among the documents was Santa Anna's report on the battle of the Alamo, heretofore unpublished.—Winnipeg Chronicle.

We venture these will not be a part of the Alamo to be paid the Daughters in the governor's divorce from control of the mission by decree of the "great and general court" of Texas. Considering that Madero is no more, and that the legislature has disposed where the governor proposed, these documents may be designated after the fashion of the memorials of State pondered over by the deceased Richelieu—"relics of a once glorious greatness."

Is It a Problem?

As a matter of fact, woman has always resented the double standard of virtue which society accepts, but it is only in recent years that she is making herself felt in efforts to abrogate it. Whether the movement to lift man up to her level, or to bring her down to his level, is the uncertain problem that yet remains to be worked out.—Houston Post.

Rather curious conclusion that, especially if the dominies and the social playwrights of the past fifteen years are to be believed. How the acceptance of an equal standard of clean living and morality for men as for women possibly could do other than ennoble those who advocate it and those its advocates would seek to fasten it on, is by no means clear. If the "rules of the game," now unjust and severe when they are not dangerous, are to be subjected to a revision that will result in a higher-minded mankind and womankind by the creation of a uniform standard of social and sex morality, who will not be bettered? Such a revision has become the chief suggestion for the alleviation of conditions wrought by "organized" vice; surely the end justifies the means in this, if in the working out of any human relation, and we cannot see how the means can be other than uplifting. Principally, the means should be the practice in a single standard of virtue of the "rules" that obtain in the vicious double standard and run only against the woman.

Take Your Choice.

An Indiana woman of 100 years is advocating hot bread and closed sleeping rooms. Is longevity an individual problem?—Benham Favorite.

Isn't it? We have been getting a headache over the record of that landmark in Illinois who lived to be 109 years old, and just before his death told his grand and great-grand survivors that had he begun to eschew liquor and tobacco at 70, instead of at 80, he would have lived ten years longer, and so on—ten years less of 1 and t assuring ten years more of existence. That seemed plausible—until within the past fortnight there appeared in Atlanta, Ga., an Indian woman who said that pipe smoking had prolonged her life to 110 years and the Great, or some other, Spirit, alone could tell how much longer she will live by the efficacy of a corncob. At least, that's what a jewel of a reporter on the Atlanta Journal said she said, and her phiz, pipe in mouth and grin about the pipe was in the Journal, so the tale must be true. Next day we found that a sunny old gentleman in Lowell, Mass., was telling the world through a display ad, that he attributes his 104 years of enjoyment of the best earth has to offer to the discriminating use of somebody's unusual brand of whiskey. Is longevity an individual problem? You tell; we have given up the problem.

And it might amaze the Chronicle dreamer of fair women to know that Miss Rose Melville, the original of "Sis Hopkins," is off the stage quite as attractive as, and more naturally attractive than, any of the hothouse beauties with whom he compares her.

Local News Notes

Tom Boone, a 13-year-old boy, had a narrow escape yesterday afternoon when a mule became frightened as the boy started to climb into a wagon to which the animal was hitched. The boy was thrown between the shaft of the wagon and the front wheels where he hung while the mule ran from Indiana street on North Fifth around Cameron park, about a half a mile. J. O. Beckley saw the runaway and overtook it in his car and rescued the boy from his precarious position. Young Boone was not injured beyond a few bruises.

The prospects for a good farming year around Elk are very bright, according to M. H. Fenter, who has returned from a trip west. He owns a large farm near Elk and says that spring weather has been very favorable for early crops. Mr. Fenter resides on Bell street.

The electric motor which runs the exhaust fan above the front entrance of the Alamo theatre became heated and caught fire yesterday about 3:50 p. m. The smoke was first noticed coming from the building by Police Officer J. P. Moore. The alarm was turned in but the fire was extinguished without the use of the hose. The building was filled with smoke and looked for awhile as if it were on fire.

Police Chief Hollis Barron returned yesterday from McAlester, Oklahoma, where he had been to return an escaped convict to the state prison. Mr. Barron was very much interested in the method of parking the streets in McAlester. The streets were parked through the center, different flowers and trees being planted on the streets so parked. One street in particular, he says, has pear trees growing within the parked section for some blocks. All the streets and sidewalks are exceptionally well kept.

The ceilings of the Cotton Belt Union station are receiving a fresh coat of white paint. While the ceilinging up will add materially to the appearance of the depot. The manner in which the waiting rooms and in fact all parts of the station are kept up is a credit to the road and to Waco.

Dr. George Lyman Kittredge of Harvard University, who is coming to Texas for the meeting of the Texas Folklore Society at Austin, will be in Waco next Monday night, April 7, and will speak in Carroll chapel that night at 8:15. He is regarded as one of the foremost scholars of the country and an exceptional authority upon American folklore, and Texas people regard it as a privilege to have him visit the state.

Deaths and Burials

Mrs. Essie Bush. No verdict has yet been rendered by Justice J. J. Padgett in the case of Mrs. Essie Bush of the 2000 block North Sixth street, who died suddenly Tuesday night about 10:30 o'clock and was found lying in the bath room by her husband.

According to the statements of the husband, James Bush, a contractor, and also a brother of Mrs. Bush to Justice Padgett, she had been troubled with a weak heart and they believed she was attacked by heart failure.

Mrs. Bush had been washing her feet and had then gone into the bath room a few minutes after she had closed the door her husband heard her fall, and on going into the room found her prostrate.

HUNGER STRIKES BAFFLE ENGLAND

HOUSE OF COMMONS CONSIDERS MEASURE TO MEET THE SITUATION.

WOMEN TELL OF TREATMENT

Home Secretary Discredits "Terrible Tale of Suffering Caused By Forceful Feeding."

London, April 2.—In discussing a bill to circumvent "hunger strikes" by suffragettes, Reginald McKenna, the home secretary, today urged the house of commons not to attach too much importance to the "terrible tales of suffering caused by forcible feeding."

"Publicly," he said, "is the keynote of the militant suffrage program. Alternately the suffragettes shock the house by the violence of their outrages and attempt to enlist sympathy in publishing tales of their suffering in prison."

"But these prisoners have declared war against society and the government is responsible for law and order."

Mr. McKenna said the proposed law provides for temporary conditional discharge of prisoners whose detention is undesirable on account of ill health, would give him a power which would make forcible feeding unnecessary.

The home secretary explained that under the existing law only three courses are open to those responsible for prisoners who begin a hunger strike. They must be either released, forcibly fed or food placed in their cells, and the prisoners allowed to die, if they do not take it.

Would Give Ticket of Leave. "At the present time," said the home secretary, "we have no power to release prisoners without remitting their sentences altogether. If the new bill is passed, we can release on ticket of leave, prisoners whose health is suffering from want of food."

Charles A. McCurdy, a liberal member, opposed the bill. He said "legislation would be wholly unnecessary if the government would extend fair treatment in the question of women's suffrage."

James Keir Hardie, labor leader, moved the rejection of the bill, declaring the government by breaking its pledges to the women was itself responsible for the militant campaign.

Lord Robert Cecil, unionist, opposed the bill on the ground that it would not get rid of forcible feeding. Asked what his remedy would be, Lord Robert replied: "Deportation," but when questioned as to how he would prevent the women from going on hunger strikes during the voyage, he gave no explanation.

Sir Gilbert Parker supported the bill because he wished the home secretary to give sufficient power to enforce sentences against law breaking suffragettes.

Mr. Hardie's motion to relief the bill was defeated by a vote of 335 to 98 and the second reading of the measure was then carried 295 to 43.

Berlin Physician Declares Radium Has Powers Allotted to Proverbial Fountain of Youth.

London, April 2.—That radium can restore the arteries of middle aged persons to a healthy condition and so prolong life was the claim made by Dr. Saubermann of Berlin, in a lecture here before the Roetgen society yesterday.

The apparatus which will manufacture the "elixir of youth" is simple. It consists of an earthenware receptacle containing a minute amount of radium, which is placed at the bottom of a glass bottle. The bottle is filled with water. In time the water becomes charged with radium emanations.

The radium remains active for hundreds of years, so it is only necessary to renew the water in order to get any number of doses.

Washington, April 2.—Leaders in women's social and official circles are at their wits end today over the problem of the invitations for the "welcome breakfast" that will be given for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas Marshall to be given for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Saturday noon.

The banquet hall engaged for the event will accommodate 250 guests. The "blue book" contains the names of more than 1,200 eligibles and already there are heart burnings and jealousies.

The feeling has broken out openly among the women who insist upon recognition. The national Democratic woman's league has announced that it would not be represented at the banquet because the seating space accorded it was not sufficient for its members. There are other defections.

The breakfast will be purely a social affair, and there will be no speeches. In place of formal addresses there will be a lecture on white house furniture and furnishings by Mrs. Abbey Gunn Baker.

WACO BLANKED IN SECOND GAME

AUSTIN EASILY WINS LAST OF
SERIES FROM THE NAVI-GATORS.

HELM GETS POOR SUPPORT

Senators Cinch Contest in First Three Innings—Carson's Men Work
Out of Form.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—Austin again blanked the Waco team at Riverside park this afternoon. In spite of the high wind and the absence of fans the exhibition was everything that the heart could desire. Fast fielding, base running and pitching was of mid-season variety.

Austin's worst inning was the first. An error by Smith and a wild throw by Hill made things look bad for a minute but the gloom was dispelled when McLaurin and Wohlschagen went out on fly balls. From this time on the game was never in doubt. Austin scored one in the first, three in the second, two in the third and one in the seventh. McMahon pulled off the only double play of the game when he caught Smith's liner and touched second, retiring Cook, who had started to third.

Brownlow in left field pulled down a fly after a hard run nearly to the infield, and Metzel accepted all chances without a bobbie. The form the latter has been showing in the last two games seems to bear out Manager Ledy's statement that his shortstop had the goods. Cook showed at his best in right field and got one of the few hits of the game. Helm went the entire game for the visitors and Ashton and Bottorff divided honors for Austin. All three pitchers were in form, especially the two senators.

Only one regrettable thing about the performance yesterday was the failure of the fans to come out and help the team with their quarters and halves.

Score— R. H. E.
Austin ..... 122 000 10x-7 5 4
Waco ..... 000 000 000-0 3 3
Batteries—Waco, Helm and Crosby; Austin, Bottorff and Bobo.

TENNIS CHAMPIONS TO COMPETE

Right Granted National Lawn Tennis
Association to Try for American Davis Cup.

New York, April 2.—R. D. Wrenn, president of the United States National Lawn Tennis association, announced that he had received acceptance from W. S. Williams, R. S. Johnson of Philadelphia, H. H. Hackett and R. D. Little of New York to compete in the trial matches for places on the American Davis cup team. Arrangements already have been made for M. E. McLoughlin, the national champion, and T. C. Bundy, holder with McLoughlin of the National Doubles title, to come east from California.

W. J. Clothier of Philadelphia, a former national champion, is trying to arrange his affairs so as to play in the team selection matches. It is a condition of the acceptance that the player, if selected will go abroad provided the Americans defeat the Australians in the international matches at the West Side Tennis club here in June.

CARROLL FIELD IN CONDITION

Track Has Been Worked Over for Big
Central Texas High School
Meet Saturday.

Carroll field will be in much better condition for the big Central Texas field meet Saturday than it was last Saturday when the inter-class high school meet was held. The track has been put in excellent shape. Holes have been filled up and hard bumps cut down.

Fourteen schools of Central Texas will participate in the meet and there will be over 100 entries. Baylor University will give the medals and the meet will be under the auspices of the Central Texas High School Athletic association.

Miss Wagner and Mrs. Beard Winners.
New York, April 2.—Miss Marie Wagner, the national champion, and Mrs. C. N. Beard today won their places in the final round of the women's indoor national lawn tennis championship tournament. Miss Wagner placed her long drives splendidly, clearly outpacing Miss Marcus in the final set. Mrs. Beard, the former western champion, experienced difficulty with the tricky net play.

Secretary E. F. Drake of the Chamber of Commerce said yesterday that the closing day for the opening of the Texas League baseball season is receiving the endorsement of most all of the merchants and business men. There seemingly is little doubt now that most every store will be closed when the umpire calls the game between the Waco Navigators and the Dallas Giants at 4 o'clock April 10.

The Rooters' Club, consisting of three score of enthusiastic ball fans, are for closing. For a number of seasons Waco has had a "gang" of rooters who take great delight in going to every game on the home lot and doing their best for the local aggregation. They realize that a little enthusiasm goes a long way toward making a winning club.

All the closing day movement now needs is someone to assure the other fellow that his competitor is willing to get in line. Before the bell taps next Thursday all the preliminaries will be rolled out, and if the weather permits the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game on the local lot will be present.

BAYLOR TO PLAY SOUTHWESTERN

Coach Glaze's Team Will Invade
Georgetown for a Series of Two Games.

The Baylor university ball team will leave tonight for Georgetown for the first game away from home with the Southwestern college. The Baptists play there Friday and Saturday.

So far Coach Glaze's team has won four games and bids fair to again annex the college championship of the state. Baylor beat the Polytechnic college of Fort Worth two games and took a brace of games from the Austin college of Sherman.

Baylor has two pitchers who are almost invincible in McConnell and Henry. McConnell has set a strike-out record that perhaps will not be equaled in college circles this season. In the first game with the Poly team he struck out thirteen batters. Henry worked against the Poly team and Austin college and won both games with little difficulty.

OMAHA WINS.

Nebraska City Team Defeats Topeka
2 to 1.

Oklahoma City, April 2.—Two hits, a sacrifice and an error gave Omaha a 2 to 1 victory over Topeka in a thrilling ten-inning battle here today. The winning run came after the teams had battled since the third round without a score and when a form displayed by Kingdom and Fullerton who were the opposing moundmen, indicated an indefinite number of rounds yet to come.

Score— R. H. E.
Topeka ..... 001 000 000 0-1 4
Omaha ..... 100 000 001 2-11 1
Hornshy, McCulloch, Fullerton and Crist, Billings, Fugate, Kingdom and Shestak.

TEAMS OPPONENTS.

Americans Win Nationals—Score 2
to 1.

Philadelphia, April 2.—In a close and well played game the Philadelphia Americans defeated the local Nationals today by a score of 2 to 1. The pitching was the feature of the game and Bush, recently acquired by the Athletics, had a shade the best of it. The Athletics also won the opening game of the spring series yesterday.

Score— R. H. E.
Americans ..... 100 000 001 2-11 1
Nationals ..... 000 000 001 5-1 1
Bush and Thomas; Chalmers, Marshall, Mayer and Dooin, Kilfer.

ROWING SCHEDULE ARRANGED.

Champion of Yale and Harvard Will Row May 17.

Cambridge, Mass., April 2.—Arrangements of Harvard's spring rowing schedule has been completed. The triangular race with Princeton and Pennsylvania will take place over the Charles river course on May 10. On May 17 the champion crews of Harvard and Yale will row on the Charles. On May 24 the university and freshmen shells will compete against Cornell at Ithaca.

KILBANE BOXES DUNDEE.

Featherweight Champion Meets New Yorker April 29.

Los Angeles, April 2.—The night of April 29 has been fixed for the featherweight championship contest between John Kilbane of Cleveland, the title holder, and Johnny Dundee of New York.

They box 20 rounds at the Vernon arena.

Collins Defeats Duniway.

Philadelphia, April 2.—Percy Collins of Chicago defeated Wilkie C. Duniway of Portland, Oregon, by the score of 400 to 268 in this afternoon's game at the National Amateur 15-2 billiard championship tournament.

Two Weddings.

Rev. F. N. Calvin, pastor of the Central Christian church, officiated at two weddings yesterday afternoon. The first was at 7:30 o'clock when H. G. Young was united in marriage to Miss Ruth Douglas, the ceremony taking place at 1620 Ross avenue, the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Young will make Waco their home.

At 8:30 o'clock at the Central Christian church J. C. Crouch of Topeka was married to Miss Clytie Craig of Waco. Mr. and Mrs. Crouch will make their home in Temple.

BRONCHOS HERE FOR GAME TODAY WITH WACO CREW

The Waco Navigators will return early this morning from an invasion of Austin and prepare for the game at Katy park this afternoon with the San Antonio Bronchos.

Manager Stinson is bringing his crack team here for the series of two games with the Navigators. There will not be many new faces among the men he will use this season. Lemon is back at third base, Seltz at second and Allen in left field, and they are about the only old players with the team with the exception of Ogle and Murphy to Austin, leaving Jost, Lohman, Platzke and Cronin at home. It may be that Carson will start the game with Platzke, but the chances are that Jost or Lohman will work.

It is almost certain that Carson will use a veteran pitcher against the visitors. His crew will all be veterans, for that matter, with the probable exception of Crosby, who may do the receiving. He took Heim, Ogle and Murphy to Austin, leaving Jost, Lohman, Platzke and Cronin at home. It may be that Carson will start the game with Platzke, but the chances are that Jost or Lohman will work.

Jeff Smith Wins From Hogan.

Paris, April 2.—Jeff Smith, the American middleweight pugilist, tonight practically knocked out the Frenchman, Adrian Hogan, at the Cirque de Paris. The end came in the eleventh round. When Hogan was helpless on the ropes, his seconds sprang into the ring and carried him out.

WOMAN FACES BIGAMY CHARGE

Fort Worth Resident, Indictment Alleges, Is Wife of Three Men.
Placed Under Arrest.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 2.—Mrs. Whitlow-Whitten-Barlow, aged 31, of Frisco Heights, Fort Worth, was arrested last night charged with bigamy. It is alleged she married in February at Weatherford while a divorce suit appeal was pending in the higher courts. She won the divorce suit in the lower court, but an appeal was taken by G. P. Whitten.

While this was pending the indictment charges, she married Clarence Barlow. The indictment was returned by the Parker county grand jury.

BOWMAN IS RE-ELECTED MAYOR

Hubbard City Again Honors the Cleaner Town Executive Who Has Done So Much.

Hubbard, Tex., April 2.—In the city election Tuesday the vote was as follows: For mayor, G. W. Speed, 99, W. Q. Bowman, 185.
For aldermen, H. H. Wright, 107; A. J. Hill, 102; W. W. McKee, 145; J. W. Haralson, 192. Two aldermen were elected and the mayor to serve two years.

Mayor Bowman is one of the best known small town executives in Texas. His cleaner city administration has been of great help to Hubbard.

TO HAVE SUMMER NORMAL.

J. W. Bartlett Is to Prepare the Papers.

R. L. Abbott, county superintendent of education, has instructed J. W. Bartlett, colored, who will conduct the summer normal school here for the members of his race, that he may now prepare all literature bearing on the courses of instruction to be given and distribute throughout the county.

It is understood there is some dissatisfaction among the negroes with the management of the school and some of the members of the race have gone so far as to state that they would not care to attend a normal conducted by Bartlett.

"In my opinion," said Prof. Abbott yesterday, "Bartlett is by all odds the best qualified man in the county for the position. Of course if negroes go to Grandview or other places to a normal this summer, leaving their own school, we will have nothing to say, but I am not playing favorites in giving positions to applicants from schools other than the one we will have. It would hardly be fair."

Mr. Abbott received a letter yesterday which states that large delegations will come from Bosque and Coryell counties to attend the school here.

EDUCATOR TO LECTURE.

Dr. S. E. Mezes Will Give Address at Carroll Chapel.

An illustrated stereoscopic lecture on Egypt will be delivered in Carroll chapel, Baylor University, at 8:15 o'clock tonight by Dr. S. E. Mezes, president of the University of Texas. He comes as exchange professor with Baylor and his address, which has been well received wherever it has been heard, will be free to the public. In addition to being one of the most prominent educators of the southwest, Dr. Mezes has traveled widely and observed closely and all students of history and public affairs will find his address tonight quite interesting. The slides for the lecture were made from views taken by Dr. Mezes in his travels through Egypt and they will contribute a great deal to the attractiveness of his address.

To Bond for a School.

Gatesville, Tex., April 2.—The city council at its meeting yesterday evening ordered an election to be held May 6 to authorize the issuance of $25,000 5 per cent 40 year bonds for the purpose of purchasing grounds and erecting a new school building.

Why do Brewers of Germany and England use only Brown Bottles?

Sunlight grows the hops, but spoils the brew.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives best protection against light.

In England and Germany the brewers won't use light glass bottles.

"Beer should not be exposed to the light, especially direct sunlight, as it will thereby be detrimentally affected, the light having an influence upon the albuminoids in the beer, causing the latter to become hazy."

Extract from the "The Beer Bottlers' Handy Book," published by the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology.

PLAN TO AID THE BOYS

PAID WORKER MAY BE BROUGHT TO CITY OF WACO
SOON.

Interested Business Men to Launch
Fund-Raising Campaign—Meeting Scheduled for Today.

To start a fund which to employ a worker to labor among the working boys of the city—news, messenger, delivery and other boys of Waco who are compelled to work for their own subsistence and assist in the support of the family—a campaign will be launched this afternoon by some of the business men who have become interested in the work that is being done for the boys.

In addition to employing a man who knows boys and how to assist them in overcoming some of the handicaps that confront them, it is planned to engage a hall which will be known as headquarters for the boys, where they can go and confer with their leader and put in their spare time in reading instead of spending it on the streets, as many of them do at present.

For three or four years the club organized for the benefit of the boys has been working along without means or resources of any character further than the time of those interested and occasional small contributions of friends for the purpose of providing monthly refreshments for boys who belong to the club. Recently the Y. M. B. L. contributed the use of its assembly hall for the weekly meetings of the club, and the Women's club and various church societies of the city, upon the solicitation of Mrs. Charles Slaughter, provided a piano for the club.

The work has grown to such proportions that it is believed a competent man, who shall give his whole time to the interests and welfare of the boys, is demanded and the business men of the city will be asked to make a contribution to support the work for a year in the belief that sufficient results can be obtained in that length of time to justify making that provision permanent.

Great improvement in the conduct of the street merchants and other boys has come through the instrumentality of the club, and it is the belief of all those who have been identified with the work that what has been accomplished is only a foretaste of still better results that will come through the expenditure of a larger effort in their behalf.

New York has 31,000 persons in its madhouses.

HARRISON VICK CASE AFFIRMED

McLENNAN COUNTY CASE PASSED ON IN THE HIGHER COURT.

TEN YEARS IS THE SENTENCE

Eugene M. Huckleberry Was Killed in a Field West of Waco in January, 1912.

Austin, April 2.—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed the case of Harrison Vick, McLennan county, who on March 8, 1912, was indicted for unlawfully and with implied malice killing and murdering E. M. Huckleberry on January 3, 1912. He was convicted on the charge of second degree murder and given ten years in the penitentiary.

Eugene M. Huckleberry was found dead late in the afternoon of Wednesday, January 3, 1912, a bullet hole through his heart, in a field one mile west of the Hutto club. The body was found by Deputy Sheriff Hatch and Charles E. Moore.

Huckleberry was employed by the Amicable Life Insurance company as a stock salesman, and had gone out into the country the day he was shot to hunt rabbits. In company with a friend he was on the land of Harrison Vick. They were told to get off the land and Huckleberry's friend did so, leaving Huckleberry, and came into town. Huckleberry was missed by persons with whom he was to keep an appointment that afternoon and a search was made. The body was found lying face down, about five feet from a deep bed. Nearby was Huckleberry's shotgun, with both barrels loaded. Two dead robins were found on his person.

The court also reversed and remanded the case against Jim Roberts of Hill county, charged with the shooting of Rufus C. Weiss, and which case came to this court on an appeal from a conviction of murder in the second degree.

The court of criminal appeals in the case of Tom Durham and Mrs. Harris from Potter county, in which the motion for rehearing was overruled, defined the act of the legislature of March 31, 1911, relative to the submission of a statement of facts in misdemeanor cases.

"The statement of facts in a county court misdemeanor case must be filed within term time, unless an order of the court during term time is made authorizing it to be filed within twenty days after adjournment."

This time, the court held, could not be extended by the jurisdiction of the court. It was held that the legislature only had the power to change the time or extend it. The court affirmed nine cases, reversed six cases, overruled seven motions for rehearing.

The court of civil appeals and the supreme court both had exceptionally light dockets today. No difficulties will be experienced in either of these courts in having the docket cleared when court adjournment time is set.

In the Supreme Court.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—The following proceedings were had in the supreme court today: Mandamus refused—Sadie F. Erp vs. J. T. Robinson Commercial Co. Certified questions answered—M. K. & T. Ry. Co. of Texas vs. Y. Y. Beasley et al. from Harrison.

Reversed and remanded—C. A. McClintic vs. Midland Grocery and Dry Goods company, from Midland. Judgment court civil appeals affirmed and cause remanded to the district court—R. T. Porter vs. Herman Kruse, from Dallas; Ed D. Bennett et al vs. J. C. Woodruff, from Knox; W. C. Corbett et al vs. J. J. Sweeney et al, from Harris; A. L. Cause submitted—Dayton Lumber company vs. State of Texas, from Travis.

Court of Criminal Appeals.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—The following proceedings were had in the court of criminal appeals today: Affirmed: Annetta Dimitri, from Dallas county; Jim Snider, Dallas; Bird Melton, Eastland; Wesley Gibbs, Fort Bend; Russell Finch, Harrison; Harrison Vick, McLennan; Emma Hightower, Nacogdoches; G. E. Comey, Taylor; O. E. Evans, Travis.

Reversed and remanded: Ed Bowman from Bexar county; Matthew Davis, Harding; Jim Roberts, Hill; Henry Chumley, Sabine; Will Jenkins, Sabine; Jose Rodriguez, Wilson.

Motion for rehearing overruled: Guy McGee, from Mitchell county; A. O. O'ndron, Jones; Lee Laird, Potter; Tom Durham and Mrs. Harris, Potter; Magruder, Telf, Lee; Will Garrett, Dallas; Pate Creed, Potter.

Submitted on brief and oral argument for both: C. P. Beaupre, from Ellis county; N. E. Smith, Collin; Chas. Cole, Hamilton.

CRAMPS, HEADACHE, BACKACHE,

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"I was always tired and weak and my housework was a drag. I was irregular, had cramps so bad that I would have to lie down, also a distressed feeling in lower part of back, and headache. My abdomen was sore and I know I had organic inflammation."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have helped me wonderfully. I don't have those pains any more and I am all right now. There are a great many women here who take your remedies and I have told others what they have done for me."—Mrs. CHAS. McKINNON, 1013 N. 5th St. W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Third Court Appeals.

Austin, Tex., April 2.—The following proceedings were had today in the court of civil appeals, third district: Affirmed—Frank M. Ball vs. Edgar Smith et al, from Travis. Reversed and remanded—J. T. Turner vs. J. M. Stephens, from Comanche; City of Austin vs. E. J. Gress, from Travis; Houston Chronicle Publishing company vs. Dock McDavid, from Bastrop.

In the case Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company of Texas vs. Mark Brown, from Falls, the judgment of the court below is adjudged to be excessive in the sum of $750, and the appellee is allowed till the 16th of April, 1913, in which to file a remittitur of that amount and the judgment for the balance will then be affirmed, otherwise it will be reversed and remanded.

Motion to dismiss appeal submitted—Thomas Allen vs. Matilda Allen, from Travis.

Submitted for rehearing—Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway company vs. L. E. Lowery, from Comanche; Holderman vs. C. S. Reynolds, from McLennan; Will Kollman vs. M. E. Brooks et al, from Williamson; First National bank of Beaumont vs. Union Trust company et al, from Travis. Submissions were postponed till the following dates in the following cases: To April 16, 1913, Amarillo Commercial company et al vs. McGregor Milling & Grain company, from McLennan; Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway company of Texas vs. Mrs. Maria Humphries et al, and same vs. Mrs. P. ## SOLDIERS TO STAY IN TEXAS

Second Division of Army to Remain Mobilized Until Final Settlement in Mexico.

Galveston, April 2.—The second division of the United States army will remain mobilized at Galveston and Texas City until the Huerta government in Mexico is recognized by the United States or until intervention in Mexico is ordered.

This is the opinion expressed today by Congressman James L. Slayden of Texas, vice chairman of the house committee on military affairs, who visited the camp of the second division of the United States army, now mobilized at Texas City and Galveston under command of Major General Wm. H. Carter, as the guest of General Carter during the day.

Congressman Slayden reviewed the second division while here, and inspected the camp sites at Texas City and Galveston. He refused to make any statement regarding his opinion of camp conditions. He said he was here merely to look over the division and to pay his respects to General Carter, his long time warm personal friend.

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczema, here and there, can be brought about by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

WATERS WRECK ILLINOIS TOWN

THE INHABITANTS OF SHAWNEETOWN FLEE IN TIME TO ESCAPE.

PROPERTY LOSS INCREASES

Danger Extends South From Mouth of the Ohio—Relief Work Under Headway.

Shawneetown, Ill., April 2.—Shawneetown, 150 miles northeast of Cairo, and claiming 3000 inhabitants, was virtually wrecked by the Ohio river flood today.

High winds lashed the water into a rolling sea, which dashed over the already submerged levee, opening a rift in the embankment, and in a little time a swift current was dashing through the residence section, carrying all before it.

Frame residences fell to pieces before the rush of water and the force of the wind and the more substantial structures were shaken. Hundreds of persons had previously fled from the place, out dozens of families remained in their homes. Their rescue was accomplished with two yaws in the naval reserve service.

The damage is estimated at $2,000,000. Less than 100 persons remain in Shawneetown tonight. They are occupants of business houses on Main street, and, marooned in the upper stories, they are grimly staying with their possessions.

A desperate effort was made to save the town yesterday, when what is known as the south levee was dynamited in the belief that the back water, while it would flood the place, would equalize the pressure against the levee on the north side and preserve it and thus prevent the full force of the current sweeping through the place.

CITY GETS LATE NEWS.

Restoration of Telegraph Wires Brings Surprise.

Columbus, Ohio, April 2.—Completely cut off from the outside world for seven days, the city of Marietta, Ohio, today through the Associated Press for the first time learned that J. P. McKinnon is dead; that Adrianople had fallen, that the Allies had been defeated; that Columbus, Dayton and almost the entire state of Ohio is emerging from the worst flood in its history. No lives were lost at Marietta, but the damage was heavy.

GERMANY SYMPATHETIC.

Floods in United States Mentioned at Imperial Parliament.

Berlin, April 2.—The recent floods in Ohio and Indiana were referred to at the opening of the Imperial Parliament today. Johannes Kaempf, the speaker, expressed the sympathy of the German people "in this great misfortune from which a part of the United States has suffered."

"The German people wish to offer their profound sympathy to this friendly nation 'in its visitation,'" he said.

Chicago Fund Totals $400,000.

Chicago, April 2.—Chicago relief fund for the flood sufferers today reached $400,000. The Chicago Association of Commerce, at the request of the American National Red Cross society, shipped to Columbus 5000 blankets, 10,000 pairs of women's shoes, 5000 pairs of children's shoes, 20 bolts of cotton cloth, 2000 mops, 1000 brooms, 1500 scrubbing brushes, 5000 hoes, 5000 shovels, 2000 rakes, one car of soap, one car of cleaning powder and 5000 pairs of women's rubbers.

Ten Cars of Food on Way.

Chicago, April 2.—A train of ten cars loaded with 115,000 rations were shipped from here to the flood district today by army officials. Eight cars are consigned to Dayton, Ohio, and two to Logansport, Ind.

Another special train, loaded with 100,000 rations will be shipped to Dayton tomorrow.

Ohio Wheat Crop Ruined.

Wheat, Ohio, April 2.—Prof. W. H. Kramer of the State Agricultural experiment station here today predicted the almost total ruin of the Ohio wheat crop as a result of the recent flood.

"The only way for farmers to avert losses of millions," he said, "is to plant the ground in other crops."

SHERWOOD LECTURE TONIGHT.

Will Be at Public Library Under Auspices of Mothers' Club.

Jean Sherwood of Chicago will deliver the first of three stereopticon travel talks at the public library tonight at 8:30. The lecture tonight will be on London.

The lectures are under the auspices of the mothers' clubs of Waco and for the benefit of the public schools. Besides the lecture tonight, Mr. Sherwood will deliver two other lectures: one Saturday, April 5, at 3:30 p. m. on "A Catholic Pilgrimage in England," and the other the same evening at 8:30 on "English Lakes and Poets."

Fines for Long Hattpins.

Berlin, April 2.—Women who persist in wearing pointed hattpins without protectors on them will be subject to fine after April 15. Having failed to persuade women to discard the sharp hat pins or provide protectors, the Berlin police president announces that April 15 transgressors will be fined up to $15 for each offense, and if they don't pay they will be imprisoned.

Cardinals Convene.

Washington, April 2.—Cardinal Gibbons, Cardinal Farley and Cardinal O'Connell and a number of archbishops today attended the meeting here of trustees of the Catholic University, which authorized construction of several additional buildings at the university here. The archbishops will meet tomorrow and hear reports of the Catholic Colonization society.

Soldiers Take Hike.

Galveston, Tex., April 2.—The seventh infantry under command of Colonel Daniel E. Cornman, left the camp at Fort Crockett today for a three day's hike down the island. Full field equipment was carried and every available man in the regiment is participating in the march.

GEORGIA LINES INJURE 2,384

Railroad Commission of That State Makes Totals From Reports. Fewer Killed.

Atlanta, Ga., April 2.—An increase of more than 100 per cent in the number of employees of steam railroads of Georgia injured last year as compared with 1911, is shown in the report of the Georgia railroad commission, filed today. No marked increase is shown in the number of passengers or trainmen killed.

On the electric railroads of the state not a single employee or passenger was killed during 1912, although there was an increase of 5 per cent over the previous year in the number of passengers injured and a slight increase in the number of employees injured.

On the steam railroads 2384 employees were injured, against 958 in 1911 and 5112 passengers were injured, against 508 the year previous. Last year sixteen passengers and seventy-four employees were killed, including victims of crossing accidents and trespassers. A total of 191 persons other than passengers or employees were killed last year. Including victims of crossing accidents and trespassers, a total of 101 persons other than passengers or employees were killed last year. On both steam and electric railroads a grand total of 298 were killed and 457 injured, in the state.

KATY BUYS THE STOCK.

Is Interested in the Road Leading to Velasco.

J. L. West, general freight agent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, with headquarters in Dallas, was in Waco yesterday and confirmed the report that the Katy had purchased a large block of stock in the Houston & Brazos Valley railroad, running from Velasco to Anchor. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas has secured trackage from Anchor to Houston over the International & Great Northern.

Waco is vitally interested in anything that is a betterment of the Brazos Valley. With the government spending huge sums in the development of the port, its possibilities are becoming realized.

$140,000 FIRE AT ST. LOUIS.

Stock of Dry Goods Store Considerably Damaged.

St. Louis, April 2.—Fire in the sub-basement of the Commercial building today damaged the reserve stock of the T. B. Boyd Furnishing Goods company $125,000, and the building about $15,000.

The Western Union Telegraph company's offices on the eighth floor were little damaged, but smoke filled the corridor so badly that telegraph operators on duty left the building.

Cardinals Convene.

Washington, April 2.—Cardinal Gibbons, Cardinal Farley and Cardinal O'Connell and a number of archbishops today attended the meeting here of trustees of the Catholic University, which authorized construction of several additional buildings at the university here. The archbishops will meet tomorrow and hear reports of the Catholic Colonization society.

Soldiers Take Hike.

Galveston, Tex., April 2.—The seventh infantry under command of Colonel Daniel E. Cornman, left the camp at Fort Crockett today for a three day's hike down the island. Full field equipment was carried and every available man in the regiment is participating in the march.

FAMOUS Female Remedy—A cure for

VALUES PER FOOT IN NORTH WACO

SOMERS SYSTEM MAP SHOWS ESTIMATE WEST FROM THE RIVER.

PROPERTY OWNERS TO MEET

Invitation Is for 4 O'clock Friday Afternoon at the City Hall—Expert to Be Present.

A map of the values agreed upon by the equalization board has been prepared for that section of the city between the river and Twenty-first street and Columbia street north, and is ready to be submitted to the property owners.

A meeting is to be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the blue room of the city hall, to which all property owners are invited. They are to look over the fixtures fixed, give their opinion of the values as fixed, and suggest changes.

A large map of that section of the city lying west of the river and north of Columbus street, and from the river west has been prepared for this explanation. This map shows the front foot value of all lots lying within that section. The values which have been placed on the property within that section of the city are those suggested by the members of the board of equalization. These figures are not yet final. They will be final after the conference held at 4 o'clock Friday. The expert, Mr. Young, and the members of the board of equalization want the property owners to come to this 4 o'clock meeting, however, and discuss these figures.

People Invited to Come. But after all the people who own the property will fix the values if they come to this meeting. If they do not come, then the board of equalization will fix the values.

The Morning News has compiled a statement of the values placed on the land—the land only, not the improvements—in the district described above. These are the full values of the property, not the assessed values. They are what the stuff is worth on the market, as it is understood by those who are fixing the values.

The figures given for each of these streets are on the basis of one foot of frontage, 100 feet deep. If a man owns a piece that is 165 feet deep, he adds 20 per cent to the figures here given. Property on the corner is given its value as to the highest price frontage.

The value of corners vary according to the value of the side street.

TO BUILD CHURCH NEAR KATY SHOPS

MRS. STREETER AND DR. MAX-FIELD GIVE LOTS FOR THE SITE.

METHODISTS TO BE IN CHARGE

Rev. M. C. Dickson, City Missionary, Will Be the Pastor—Revival at Once.

Plans for the construction of a church building and parsonage in White City addition were given added impetus yesterday when Mrs. Mollie E. Streeter and Dr. J. R. Maxfield, owners of the addition, decided to gift two lots of the tract to the White City Methodist Episcopal Church South. The addition to the city was formerly known as Roseland, the name being changed to White City. It is located near the new Katy shops.

The establishment of the church is the result of a combined movement on the part of the pastors of the various Methodist churches of the city. The present plans for the new congregation are that a building to cost between $8,000 and $10,000 will be constructed for the church, together with a parsonage. A portion of the money is now available, this being part of a surplus left from $8,000 raised for other church purposes. M. C. Dickson, city missionary for the Methodist churches, who is to be pastor of the White City church, will begin this morning collecting money for the endeavor. It is expected Methodists of the various other churches of the city will contribute, and residents of that section, which will come within the influence of the new church, will also assist.

In order to launch the project and to assemble a congregation plans are being prepared to erect a tabernacle 40x50 feet in dimensions, where a revival will be begun at once. No time is to be lost in the construction of a place of worship for the residents of this section, which is rapidly settling up.

Buy from Walter Lacy. Another turn in Austin street business property was made yesterday when F. E. McLarty purchased from Walter G. Lacy, the building and lot between Seventh and Eighth streets occupied by the Cadillac salesroom. The building is practically new, 2x15 feet, one-story. The purchase price was $27,500. The purchase was made as an investment.

DRUGGISTS TO MEET HERE

Several Hundred From Other Towns In Texas to Have Convention.

Between 150 and 200 members are expected in Waco to attend the annual convention of the Texas Retail club, which meets here April 8 and 9. These are properties of Retail stores in various cities and towns in the state. Each is also a stockholder in the United Drug company, which has headquarters at Boston, manufacturers and distributors of the Retail goods. The meeting will be the second of its kind held in the state, the first being in Port Worth last April. The purpose of the convention is to bring together these druggists and stockholders to discuss business and plans in connection with the Retail proposition.

Louis K. Liggett, president of the company and founder of the co-operative plan upon which it is operated, together with other officials of the company, are expected to attend. Mr. Liggett founded the concern some ten years ago. There are approximately 1000 stores in Texas handling the products of the company, there being one in almost every city and town of consequence in the state.

Dr. W. B. Morrison of the Old Corner Drug store, Waco, is vice president of the Texas club and is arranging for the visit of the members. John W. Covey of Fort Worth is secretary of the club. A. E. Kiesling of Houston is one of the vice presidents, and Jess P. Cunningham of Gainesville is secretary and treasurer.

The convention will be in session two days, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Headquarters will be maintained at the State House, and the meetings will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Amicable building. The Majestic Theatre building also, will be utilized if necessary. No program of entertainment has been arranged and each attending member will pay all his expenses. The meeting will be purely a business one.

TO LECTURE HERE TONIGHT

Christian Scientist to Present Principles of the Faith at Free Meeting.

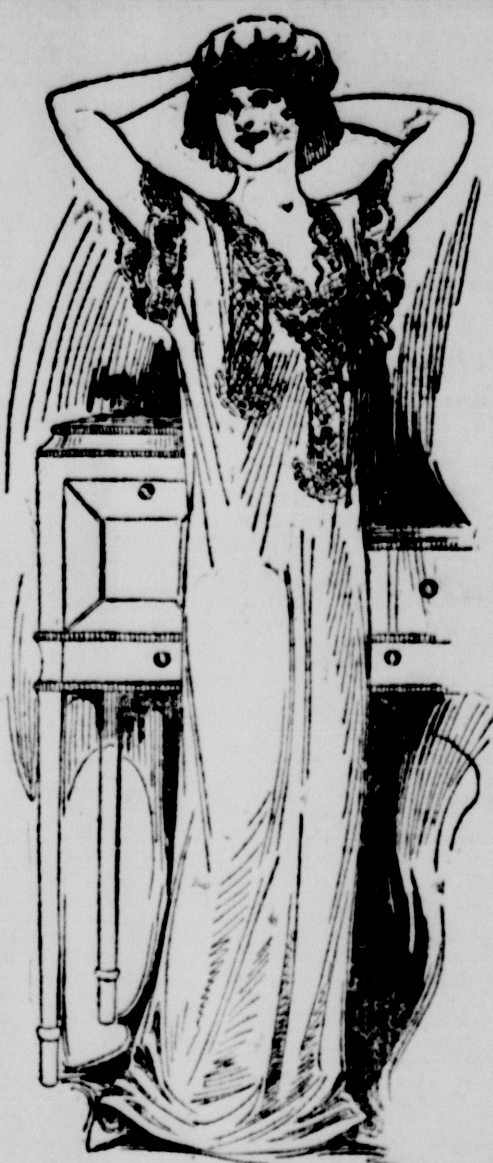

Clifford P. Smith, a member of the board of trusteeship of the First Church of Christ (Scientist), Boston, Mass., will deliver a lecture this evening, at 8 o'clock at the Majestic theatre on Christian Science. The lecture will be free to all, and an invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Mr. Smith comes to Waco under the auspices of the Christian Scientists of this city.

WILL STOP THE JOY RIDING

Police Will Have More Stringent Law to Enforce Now Against Offenders.

Speaking of the bill which was signed by the governor yesterday relative to the using of bicycles, motorcycles and automobiles, Hollis Barron said that when the law goes into effect there will be fewer offenders of "joy riding" very probably. Taking a person's automobile now and using it without his permission is now punishable only as a misdemeanor. The new law makes it a felony.

A Unique Display in Our Main Windows Today and the Rest of the Week—An Electric Window Display in Connection with Our Victrola Department

We have secured for this week a most interesting and attractive display. This display is a miniature reproduction of the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. The curtain goes up, revealing one of the World's Greatest Orchestras, then one of the World's Greatest Singers, etc. Giving a most complete reproduction of the stage settings during the most famous Grand Operas. The unusual cleverness of this window display will interest you. The display will be in operation in our windows for the next five or six days, and also at night. The people who are reproduced in this miniature Grand Opera are all famous musicians who sing or play for the Victor Victrola, and their Records, including the very latest, are all on sale in our Victor Department on the Third Floor.

MANY NAMES ARE SUGGESTED

Peyton Randle Gets Lot of Answers to His Title Prize Offer.

The contest in which $25 has been offered to the person suggesting a name most suitable for the interurban addition which Peyton Randle & Co. has placed on the market, has had the effect of flooding that company's office with letters from all sections of the state. Last Sunday morning, Mr. Randle carried an extensive advertisement in the Waco Morning News, telling of the plan to secure a fitting name for his pretty addition. The returns from this advertisement have been manifold. On his desk are stacked letters from all sections wherein the News circulates, each with a suggestion for the name.

For instance, one lady of Hillsboro, playing on Mr. Randle's vanity, has suggested the name of Randleville. Another suggestion from Riesel is that the place be called Progress Ridge, because of its elevation. A Waco lady thinks Soltaire, meaning a gem in
